Guarantee

- 7.1 The installation of the System involves the installation of humidity regulating units into the wall. The contractor guarantees that the humidity regulating units will last for at least the lifetime of the brickwork in which they are installed. If a humidity regulating element is defective, the Contractor will replace it to ensure the continuing operation of the SmartDry System. Provided that the customer has accepted and paid for the installation in full in accordance with the recommendations of the Contractor (including those out of the extent of the installation), the additional guarantee set out in 7.2 below shall also apply.
- 7.2 The Lifetime Guarantee is only applicable when the DryBrick System is installed on all external walls and following the surveyors recommendations. If the installation has only been done on some sections of the property, and is not installed on all external walls, or in accordance with the surveyors recommendations, the guarantee is void and not applicable.
- 7.3 The Contractor guarantees to the Customer that upon 16 months following the installation of the System, the moisture content of the brickwork in which the SmartDry units are installed will be reduced to below 10% as measured by the Contractor, and if it is not, the Customer shall be entitled to their money back, provided that the Customer has given notice through a written claim with a copy of the original Invoice and Guarantee Certificate, under this guarantee within 17 months of the installation. In the event that the Customer needs a gravimetric report to verify the performance of the System -for selling purposes of the property for example- and they have not previously purchased this service at the time of the Installation Quote, a first time reduced fee of £200 + VAT will be charged for this inspection and report; this service is available starting from 16 months after installation of the SmartDry System. Any changes to paperwork (such as change of ownership) will incur a standard administrative charge of £45 + VAT.
- 7.4 The Contractor shall not be liable under the above guarantees when there is:
- 7.4.1 interference by the Customer or a third party or modifications to the installation;
 - 7.4.2 application by the Customer or a third party of any material such as a coating to the inner or outer surfaces of the walls which are treated with the SmartDry units which could prevent the walls from breathing. It is recommended that any materials that hinder the breathability of the walls be removed as this could delay the effectiveness of the System;
 - 7.4.3 failure to ensure ventilation options or possibilities so as to keep the humidity levels where the System has been installed within an acceptable range that does not surpass a humidity level of 60%;
 - 7.4.4 failure by the Customer to carry out or comply with any recommendations of the Contractor;

 - 7.4.6 pre-existing structural defects.
 - 7.4.7 illegal or unapproved removal of any parts of the SmartDry system, especially the installed bricks.

- 8.2 The Contractor shall not be liable to the Customer or deemed to be in breach of the Installation Quote by reason of any delay in performing or any failure to perform any of the Contractor's obligations in relation to the installation if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond the Contractor's reasonable control including fire, frost, periods of heavy rainfall, faulty machinery or other faults at the Contractor's industrial premises, strikes, war risk, riots, war, epidemics, flooding, and storms.
- 8.3 If the indicative delivery period contained in the Installation Quote is exceeded by more than 6 months as a result of any cause beyond the Contractor's reasonable control the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Installation Quote in which event the Contractor shall return the Customer's deposit and the Contractor shall have no other liability to the Customer of any kind whether by way of consequential loss or otherwise howsoever.
- 8.4 If the Installation Quote and these Conditions constitute a consumer transaction, the statutory rights of the Customer are not affected by these Conditions. If the Customer is in any doubt about the relevant statutory rights it is for the Customer to be advised by the local Trading Standards Office or Citizens Advice Bureau or otherwise, as the Customer chooses.
